OVERVIEW

As Nantucket's premier luxury lifestyle magazine, N Magazine strives to produce the highest quality content for our readers. We are respected and known for our stunning photography, creative content, and compelling articles on subjects both local and international. In order to consistently deliver such a top quality product, we rely heavily on the talents and skills of our team members, including our interns.

Interning with N Magazine provides a comprehensive opportunity to learn many facets of the publishing industry, including writing, photography, advertising, social media, event planning, and more. We look for students with an interest in publishing or communications, a passion for all things Nantucket, and a professional and dedicated work ethic. We want you to get the most out of your experience with us and will work to make sure you develop applicable skills you can take with you when the summer is over.

DETAILS

Basics:

- Unpaid Internship (or for college credit)
- N Magazine does not provide housing and intern applicants must secure housing before we can offer an internship

Time Commitment:

- Early-June through mid-August 2019 (flexible under certain circumstances)
- Monday – Friday, 10:00 am to 2:00 pm, with various additional hours weekly. As this is an unpaid internship, we understand that second jobs may be a necessity to live on-island. We can be flexible to accommodate second jobs but maintain that the N internship must be a top priority throughout the summer.

Responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Writing digital content for the website, including the weekly N Top Ten event listing and web-exclusive articles
- Assisting with photo shoots
- Taking photographs for our social media channels and website
- Helping out at N Magazine events
- Researching background information for articles and interviews

Expectations:

- Arriving each day on-time, prepared, and ready to work
- General knowledge of the Nantucket community and its businesses
- A fluency in social media
- The ability to pitch-in as needed. Because we are a small team, we wear many hats, and often ask our interns to assist in a variety of magazine-related tasks outside the normal duties of the internship. This can include picking up and returning garments for fashion shoots, transcribing interviews, and mailing magazines among other tasks.
